The new elevators for unloading ear corn from the wagon are no doubt many leaps ahead of the scoop shovel, but where the latter method is used all the boxes should be supplied with shoveling boards instead of ordinary end gates.

The exports of agricultural products in the fiscal year 1908 were valued at $1,017,000,000, an amount greater than for any year except 1907, the reduction of $37,000,000 under that year being chiefly due to the falling off in value of cotton exports. The exported cotton was valued at $428,000,000, the grain and grain products at $215,000,000 and the packing house products at $190,000,000.

MONTPELIER

W. M. McGovern Buys Land and May Enter Granite Business.

W. M. McGovern has purchased of J. A. Ruscher a strip of land four rods wide and 300 or 350 feet in length lying on River street between the plant of C. P. Gill & Co. granite dealers and the Standard Oil tank. The consideration given in the deed is $800. Mr. McGovern stated that he purchased for investment and may later go into the granite business and build a stone shed there. The location is well adapted for stone shed purposes since it lies on the Barre Branch of the Central Vermont railroad, having the same shipping facilities as other lots in that section on which stone sheds are located. The land was purchased some years ago by John Ruscher with an idea of going into business for himself before he bought out his partner.

NO CURFEW FOR BENNINGTON.

Voters Turned It Down at Village Meeting.

Bennington, March 17.—Outside a contest over the office of village president, there was but little excitement at the annual village meeting held yesterday afternoon. Fred C. The Cowboy Sonneteer.

I seen a show las' night, at ol' Cheyenne,
And it was 'bout a feller who, like me,
Was rough and wild and ornery as could be,
Same as a bronk that hates the ways of
of men;
But he gits love struck, like I do, and then
He cuts out all that booze, a-flawin' free,
And studies nights, and makes her see that he
Has got the makin' of a man, by Hen!
And I'm a-goin' to try that hombrey's game
And spruce myself like all stage lovers do,
And show the teacher that, though my nickname
Is Flesin Bill, I ain't so bad clear through;
And then I'll see--and darned quick,
too, I suppose--
If things in life end like they do in shows.

SUICIDE'S EXAMPLE.

Girl's Self-Destruction Followed By Three Men.

Granite City, Ill., March 17.—Closely following the suicide of Beryl Somers, who, loved by two brothers and engaged to marry one, killed herself when her parents objected to her fiancé, and the subsequent suicide of both brothers, C. J. Smith, a factory foreman, has ended his life. Smith's suicide is attributed entirely to mental suggestion. He was a man of means, had no domestic or business troubles, and was in perfect health. He was the first to reach the side of Robert Nicholls when the lad fell in the street after drinking carbolic acid.

Smith picked the boy up and smelled the acid as he carried him to a drug store. For hours he would talk of nothing else but the suicide and the strange events that led up to it. Last night he bought a bottle of carbolic acid, swallowed the poison, and sat calmly down on a chair to await the end. When his wife entered the room he was dead.

Where Friendship Ceased

"Never heard what broke up their friendship—Dear me! I thought every one had heard that. Brown is engaged, you know."

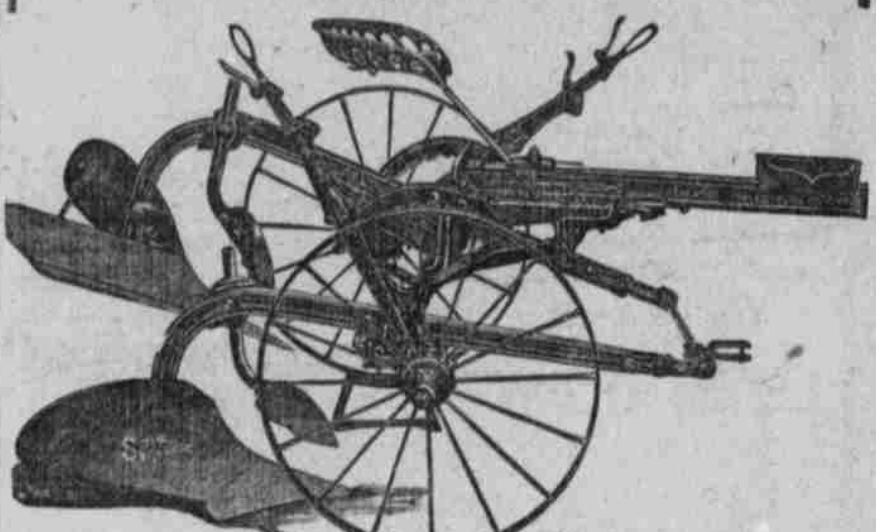

"Lui yes, I've heard that. Was White in love with the same girl?"
"No, no. Not at all. But White saw her portrait in Brown's room and asked whose it was."
"It's a picture of my fiancée," said Brown.

"White examined it critically, and then put it down, with the remark that she must be very rich. I don't know what happened after that but White was taken home in a cab, and neither of them was seen out of doors for a week."

He Who is Best Prepared Gets Best Results

THE SULKY PLOW proved itself a power in the land of Vermont last year. This year it is recognized by the best farmers as a necessity. Competition among farmers is just as keen as in any other business (or profession as you may choose to call it) and land well plowed is a first essential to good crops.

I have seven standard makes of Sulky Plows in stock this year. You may choose a plow from this assortment and if it does not do the work it is represented to do BRING IT BACK, the trial is on me.

A. W. ALLEN, Sunnyside Farm.

N. E. and People's Line Telephones, E. Montpelier Road.
P. S. I have all kinds of Harrows, Cultivators, Weeders, etc., to follow up the good work which the plow begins.
